Theology dealing with the responsibilities of members of the clergy to the people under their care. See more.

This much needed book fully integrates principles of pastoral care, leadership, and theology to restore to ministers a clearly defined pastoral identity. Curriculum overview: The MA consists of 60 credits of biblical studies modules selected from the following options: Prophetic literature (15 credits), Gospel of Matthew (15 credits), Pauline literature and The Acts of the Apostles (30 credits), International study tour (30 credits), Biblical Hermeneutics in Pastoral Context (30 credits), and either one 30 credit or two 15 credit modules, Practical Theology and Pastoral Training.

Ian D. Bunting has pursued a single urgent question in his work as a pastoral educator in the context of a theological college. This question is: what is pastoral theology? What specific areas of theology do pastors need to be especially trained in? Pastoral theology is one of the departments in the faculty of theology at the mother faculty of the Catholic University of Eastern Africa (CUEA).

Pastoral theology is the study of the theological bases as well as the practical implications of the professional activities of religious workers. From 1978 to 1998, Pastor A. N. Martin taught pastoral theology in the Trinity Ministerial Academy, a church-based ministerial training institution. The Master of Arts in Pastoral Theology is a two-year program of studies that focuses on the core fields of biblical studies, theological studies, and pastoral studies.

This is a community for those who want to think through how what we believe (our theology) is applied to pastoral care and counseling. NB: The starting perspective is from a Reformed position and a belief in biblical counseling but all welcome.

Pastoral theology is the branch of theology dealing with the responsibilities of the clergy to the people under their care. See more.
