Timeline is a science fiction novel by American writer Michael Crichton published in November 1999. It tells the story of a group of history students who travel to the 14th century in 14th century France to rescue their professor. The narrative involves a timeline, which is crucial to understanding the plot. The timeline book instructions by Charmaine Wistad are a great help in finishing the novel. Crichton's purpose in using dual timelines is to shed light on the story's events.

The adventures of Tom Sawyer was a popular book published in 1876. It was one of the first books published with a typewriter. The story takes place in a town where Mark Twain grew up, and the narrative follows a young boy and how he lived.
