Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojana (PMFBY) is a well-conceived pro-farmer agricultural crop insurance scheme launched by the Central Government of India in 2016. The scheme was introduced by the Prime Minister, Narendra Modi, and is aimed at providing insurance coverage and financial support to farmers in case of crop damage due to natural calamities, pests, and diseases. PMFBY is an important step taken by the government to ensure insurance for the smallholder farmers in the country.

The Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojana has replaced the existing two schemes, National Agricultural Insurance Scheme (NAIS) and Rashtriya Sishya Kalyan Yojana (RSKY), with some inherent drawbacks. The new crop insurance portal has been developed to ensure better crop insurance services. You can access the new Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojana scheme as well as modified NAIS which have had some inherent drawbacks.

The Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojana scheme is operational in all schemes of central government, online application procedure for farmers, and is an important step to ensure insurance for the smallholder farmers in the country. The scheme is operational in all the schemes of central government and provides insurance coverage and financial support to the farmers. The maximum proportion of rural population depends on agriculture, and the scheme is launched by the Central Government of India.

In the year of 2016, the government of India introduced the Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojana with the primary objective of ensuring that the farmers and backing them with necessary financial support on the occurrence of a failure of any of the notified crops owing to natural calamities, pests, and diseases. The government has revamped its insurance portal to ensure better crop insurance services.
